To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing to wholeheartedly recommend Jeff Johnson to you as a guest artist for a kids' or family concert. Jeff is an extremely gifted worship leader for kids of all ages. His concerts are full of fun, variety, and amazing worship on a kids' level.

Whether he is performing music that he has written himself, or someone else's worship music, he puts his whole heart into whatever he is doing. He is a talented songwriter and performer, and his songs speak Biblical truth in a "non-stuffy" way that kids will remember and be excited about.

Jeff is a Godly man, and that is evidenced in his personal life as well as on stage. As he interacts with kids or adults, he makes you want to follow his Jesus.

You will not be sorry when you book a concert! In fact, you'll be wondering when he will come back for more!

Sincerely,
